HE CALLED LOUDLY FOR NOW YOU'RE OFF!

THE ONLY MICHOL.
Last year was a year, you'll remember,
The ladies had the right of way;
And at the end of black lace
My own dear sweetheart had her say.
Which was like this: "My dear, you know We've waiting been—how long, have we not?
Now shall we go on the spot?
Or shall we settle on the spot?"
I figured, as well I might,
I had no home to take her to;
Her own had been so long and bright,
I scarcely knew what I should do.
But to my rescue swift she came,
As angels will to help a man;
Close linked with an instant plan.
"Why Joe," she said, "your mind's distraught,
You need no fortune now to marry;
Of this wise plan I've often thought, I only ask that you will give Part of your fortune to me;
I'll take it and we'll live as we please,
Like prince and princess, hand in hand."
Dear little soul! she got a house, For price I did not pass or stick to;
But she was all my own, and I was all hers;
From partners to hand-in-hand.
I tell you this plan's just the thing.
And now whenever I want any new or fashionable improvement I called loudly on the man who helped us get our home. Why do men heart and live in dark, narrow rooms when they have only to pay a sum by the week to

dalla, Trenton, Adler and Eber.

The Nipise Dashed on the Reefs But Only Slightly Damaged—The German War-Ship Olga Reported Safe—Loss of Life on the American Vessels Placed at Forty-Three—The Germans Lost Ninety-Six Men—Complete List of the American Victims—Full Particulars of the Frightful Disaster—The News at Washington—Description of the Wrecked Ships—Secretary Tracy's Instructions to Lieut. Wilson —Admiral Kimberly's Report—Views of Naval Officers.

UCLA, New Zealand, March 30.—Dispatches from Samoa say that the American men-of-war Trenton, Vandalla and Nipise and the German men-of-war Olga, Adler and Eber were driven on a reef during a violent storm and totally wrecked. It is also stated that the American crews four officers and forty-six men were drowned, and of the German crews nine officers and eighty-seven men perished. The commander of the Nipise was Lieut. W. H. Smith, who entered the service in 1880. The executive officer of the Nipise was Richard G. Davenport. The other officers were: Lieut. John R. Harman of New York, Ensigns W. P. White, John L. Purcell, Harry
A. Field and Harry A. Jones, Past Assistant Surgeon E. S. Smith, Past Assistant Paymaster
John Corwin, Chief Engineer Geo. W. Hall, Past Assistant Engineer Horace E. Frick and First Lieut. of Marines T. Glover Fillette.
The Nipise was a wooden vessel and built in 1874. The Trenton was a ship-riggered cruiser of ten guns and 3,800 tons displacement. The Vandalla was a wooden cruiser of 3,100 tons, with a battery of eight guns.

THE GERMAN SHIPS.
The Olga was a single-decked cruiser of 2,300 tons displacement and was built in 1880. She had a battery of eight 6-inch Krupp rifles and a number of revolving cannons. She also carried torpedoes. The Adler carried four and the Eber three Krupp guns and both carried torpedoes.

ATTEMPTED TO PUT TO SEA.
LATER—Messengers received here regarding the hurricane which devastated Samoa and wrecked a number of German and American warships, says the storm swept the islands on the 17th ult. Only the English steamer Calliope succeeded in getting out.
Merchant vessels suffered severely. The bark, Peter Godfrey, one other bark and seven coasters were wrecked and four persons drowned. The Calliope sailed for Sydney. The Peter Godfrey was a German bark. She had arrived at Samoa from Sydney.

THE REPORT CONFIRMED.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—The Navy Department has received a dispatch from Admiral Kimberly, confirming the report of the disaster at Apia. The Trenton and Vandalla are a total loss. The Nipise is on the beach and may be saved. Two of the German vessels are a total loss.

ADAMANT KIMBERLY'S DISPATCH.
The following is Admiral Kimberly's cable message, received at the Navy Department this morning:
Secretary of the Navy, Washington:
A terrific hurricane at Apia on March 15.
Every vessel in the harbor on shore except the English man-of-war Calliope, which got to sea. The Trenton and Vandalla are total losses. The Nipise is beached, with her rudder gone, and may be saved. The chances are against it, however. Will send her to Auckland if possible. The Vandalla lost four officers and thirty-nine men, namely:
THE LOST.

CAPT. SCHOUHARTER,
PAYMASTER ARMS,
LIEUTENANT OF MARINES SUTTON, PAY CLERK JOHN BOACH,

QUARTERMASTER MICHAEL CASHEN,

IT IS THE OPINION OF ADMIRAL KIMBERLY, who is also familiar with the Samoan Islands, that the English man-of-war Olga, which had steam up and was enabled to put out to sea. The number of vessels lying in the small harbor was a source of danger to them individually for if one dragged her anchors she would very probably collide with and carry away another ship which might otherwise have held securely.
The news of the disaster created a profound sensation at the Navy Department, and expressed his regret. Secretary Tracy could not see cause to condemn anyone. The officers in command of the vessels were competent men and had taken all proper precautions against disaster, but these hurricanes which assumed disproportionate proportions were simply irresistible, as was proved by the extent of the loss of vessels.

THE NIPISE'S LOSS.

The Nipise lost seven men, namely:
GEORGE W. CALLAN,
JOHN GILL,
JOHN HART,
THOMAS JOHNSON,
DAVID KELLERER,
HENRY KUTZEL,
WILLIAM WATSON.

All were saved from the Trenton. The Trenton and Vandalla crews were ashore and the Nipise's on board. All stores possible were saved. The German ships, Adler and Eber, are total losses. The Olga is beached and may be saved. The German losses are ninety-six. It is important to send 300 men home as soon as possible. Shall I charter a steamer? I can charter one in Auckland. Lieut. Wilson will remain in Auckland to obey your orders. Full-har accounts by mail. KIMBERLY.

SECRETARY TRACY TO LIEUT. WILSON.
The following dispatch has been sent to Lieut. Wilson for Admiral Kimberly, care American Consul, Auckland:
"Take such steps with regard to the Nipise and sending men home as you may deem proper. Full power given you. Monongahela sailed for Apia February 21. TRACY.

THE NEWS IN BERLIN.
BERLIN, March 30.—Advices received by the naval authorities here report that the storm raged during the 16th and 17th insts. Seventy persons from the Eber and twenty from the Adler were drowned. The Olga was stranded, but her crew were saved. All the merchant vessels anchored at Samoa foundered.

THE GERMAN LOSS.
It is officially announced that five officers and seventy men from the Adler and twenty men from the Eber were drowned.

Capt. Cornelius M. Schoonmaker.
NEW YORK, March 30.—Capt. Cornelius M.
Schoonmaker, commanding the Vandalia, who lost his life at Apia, had a total sea service of fifteen years, with an additional thirteen years and five months on shore duty and about six years unemployed. He was appointed from New York in 1884. He became a midshipman in 1889 and was made a Lieutenant at the outbreak of the rebellion, and in 1893 became a Lieutenant-Commander. Eight years later he got his full rank as commander, becoming Captain in October, 1898. He was a member of the Ulster County family of Schoonmakers.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The wife of Capt.
C. M. Schoonmaker, the ill-fated commander of the Vandalia, lost in Apia, has resided in this city for several months, caring for her three daughters, who attend St. Agnes' school here.

Naval Cadets Safe.
CHICAGO, Ill., March 30.—There were seven naval cadets on board the Trenton and three on board the Vandalla. The cadets on the Trenton were Benj. W. Wells, Jr., son of W. B.
Wells, iron merchant of Chicago; Benj. O.
Decker, son of Henry Decker of the law firm of Blalock, Abrams & Decker of Chicago; Geo.
W. Logan, son of the Hon. Thomas Logan of Cincinnati; Frank W. Hillebrand, son of Minnesota, W. S. Clarke of New Jersey and Richard H. Jackson of Alabama. Those on board of the Vandalla were: Edward W. Reed, son of Maj. Moale of the United States Army, now stationed at Presidio, Cal.; Chas.
P. Johnson of Ohio and Samuel E. Edmunds of Missouri. All these were saved.

A Costly Cablegram.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—It is said at the Navy Department that Admiral Kimberly's cablegram containing the news contained between $50 and $60.
Telegrams of inquiry were received by Commodore Walker from the mother of Lieut.
Sutton and the wives of Capt. Schoonmaker and Paymaster Arms. Suitable replies were made and a telegram was also sent to Editor J. Roche of the Boston Pilot, informing him of the death of his brother.

The Harbor at Apia.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Capt. Sell-ridge, U. S. N., was found at the Navy Department this morning, peering over a chart of the harbor of Apia, which he visited several years ago. He said that while it was a very bad harbor, it was the best on the island of Upolu. Like all of the Pacific island harbors, that of Apia is formed by a coral reef, encircling the island at a short distance from the shore. The anchorage space available for men-of-war is contrasted, being about 1,000 feet wide at the mouth of the harbor.
The bottom is sandy affording slight hold for an anchor, and the harbor is exposed on the north. On each side of the entrance are coral reefs which are awash at high water and are surrounded by shoals. The depth of water ranges from four to eight fathoms, pretty deep water being found close in shore, which would enable a ship to get close in. Hurricanes or cyclones, as Apia are usually from the southwest, and revolving in the harbor, the force vessels on the rugged reefs or rough shores. The last hurricane occurred at Apia just six years ago. Fortunately no men-of-war were in the harbor, but every merchantman was driven ashore or wrecked, houses were destroyed and palm trees uprooted.

ADMIRAL KIMBERLY'S OPINION.

ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE

A NON-RESIDENT PROPERTY HOLDER

Reserved Interest on Forest Boulevard—Demand for Low Price Home—Along the Eastern Avenue Cable—A Speculator Making Money—Selling at the North End of the Day.

Friday's real estate market while not quite as active as yesterday in the matter of sales, was nevertheless very satisfactory, especially in view of the local political campaign, which was going on so much attention. The agents were busy negotiating in their offices and many of the houses were being shown, especially in the directions showing property, to those who want to buy somewhere. The indications are that buyers have concluded it is no longer of any use to delay purchases in the hope of a better market, and the owners are anxious to get rid of their property, especially in the case of houses which they have been unable to sell at lower figures. Parties who committed error have suffered the disappointment of finding out that they had been misled, and from them by some one else until now no every piece they had set their heart upon.

Forest Park boulevard property has been sold at a profit of $10,000. The building is a splendid building site along the boulevard and an immense amount of money has been expended upon it for improvements. The water in the lake is very pure and the view of the city is magnificent. The property is situated on a corner of the boulevard and is a very desirable place for a residence. The owner is a non-resident and is anxious to sell at a low price.
